RIVAL OF LOUSITANIA

Giant Cunarder Mauretania Has Started on Maiden Voyage.

CARRIES 2,000 PASSENGERS

The Mauretania's Recent Trials Establish the Conviction that She Will Surpass the Lusitania's Achievements—Insured for $5,000,000.

New York, Nov. 18.—Advices from England as to the departure of the huge new Cunard steamer Mauretania from Liverpool Saturday afternoon on her maiden trans-Atlantic passage, say that the event was attended with an interest fully as keen as that which marked the Lusitania's first departure for America.

The Mauretania's recent trials establish the conviction that she will surpass the Lusitania's achievements, notwithstanding the official announcement that she will not be pushed. The rival shipbuilding interests on the Tyne and of the Clyde are intensely interested on this point of speed, for the English builders hope to see the product of the Scotch yards outpaced by a Tyne side vessel.

The Mauretania will carry about two thousand passengers—a record number for a westward passage in mid-November—but even then all her berths will not be filled.

The amount of gold she will bring here will probably be about $13,000,000.

The Cunard company has insured the Mauretania for nearly $5,000,000.

METHODIST PROTESTANTS.

Delegates Were Elected to the General Conference.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 18—The sixty-eighth session of the Georgia conference of the Methodist Protestant church convened at Pearce chapel, this city, Friday morning, with President J. A. McGarity in the chair, and Colonel J. J. Barge acting as secretary. Delegates from over the state are in attendance.

McRadford was elected president, and J. J. Barge reelected secretary. The conference will be in session for the next three days.

Black List Read Out Against Whites.

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 18.—At a prominent negro church of this city, boasting a membership of 800 strong, a black list was read out containing the names of some of the most prominent white people in the city, that are alleged to be "hard to work for" After readinig a list the pastor made an address to his congregation in which he outlined a suggested policy, advising all negroes present not to work for the white people whose names appeared on the list, declaring it was the only way to keep out of trouble. In connection with this story it may be stated that not 20 per cent of the families in the city have cooks. The cause of it is said to be the fact that white people have adopted the necessary expedient of locking the pantry as soon as meals are "given out." This seems to have angered Cuffy's better half.

Negro Hanged for Assault.

Greensboro, Ala., Nov. 18.—Moses Taylor, a negro, was hanged here Friday for criminal assault. The crime was committed in September against the little daughter of Alfred Johnson, a well known farmer of the neighborhood. The girl was deaf and dumb and partially paralyzed. Episcopal Bishop Opposes Action of President Roosevelt.

New York, Nov. 18.—The Right Rev. Frederick Burgess, Episcopal bishop of Long Island, in an interview declared that the president did wrong in eliminating the motto "In God We Trust" from the new ten-dollar gold pieces, but defended him by saying that he was actuated by the highest motives of reverence.

"The importance of the proposed removal has been greatly exaggerated," he said.

"President Roosevelt was actuated by the highest motives of reverence, and yet he was mistaken in supposing that any harm was caused to the religions of the country by jesting on the subject. Everything sacred, from marriage downward, is made a subject of humor by the American people and papers, but it ought not, in my opinion, to influence our chief magistrate to take from our coins the name of God, at this time especially when our people need to remember God more than ever in their financial transactions.

"It is a pity that a question has been raised, but now that it has been, I hope the inscription, which was inspired by a faithful people at a critical time in their history, will not now be erased when the republic needs all its religion to face its difficulties."

MISSIONARIES' CHECKS.

New York, Nov. 18.—Missionaries in the Far East and in Africa, whose salaries are guaranteed by the New York branch of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, and who recently had checks on the Knickerbocker Trust company mailed to them, will have a hard time getting the checks cashed owing to the suspension of the company. In anticipation of possible trouble in this respect the secretary has mailed a circular letter to each of its 27,000 members in this state and New Jersey, explaining the situation.

Atlanta, Nov. 18.—Atlanta is the home of 121,000 people, a gain of at least $5,000 over last year, according to the figures compiled by Joseph W. Hill, publisher of the new city directory for 1908. "The American roads are built excellently. It is astonishing to see with what simple means the Americans get splendid results even where money is lacking."

NEW STATE IS ADDED

One More Star to Go on the American Flag.

OKLAHOMA IS NOW ADMITTED

President Roosevelt on Saturday Signed the Proclamation Admitting Oklahoma and Indian Territory Jointly as a State.

Washington, Nov. 18.—A new star was added to the American flag when the admission formally to the state of Oklahoma. President Roosevelt at 10:16 Saturday signed the proclamation admitting the territories of Oklahoma and Indian Territory jointly as one of the American states. Little formality attended the ceremony which meant so much to the people of the two territories.

In appending his signature to the proclamation, the President used a pen formed from a quill plucked from the wing of an American eagle.

The pen will be deposited with the Oklahoma historical society.

Ghutrie, Okla., Nov. 16.—With impressive ceremonies befitting the birth of the new state of Oklahoma, the oaths of office were administered to Governor Chas. N. Haskell, and other state officers a few minutes before noon Saturday.

The oath was given by Leslie Niblack, a newspaper man. The ceremonies took place on the steps of the Carnegie library, there being no state building at this place. Following prayer by a clergymen, the proclamation of President Roosevelt admitting Oklahoma and Indian Territory into the union was read by Charles Fitson, secretary of Oklahoma territory. The text of the order, which was telegraphed from Washington a short time before the inauguration, was brief and closed as follows:

"I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States of America in accordance with the enabling act of congress and by authority thereof, announce the result of the election to be as certified, and do hereby declare and proclaim that the terms and conditions prescribed by congress to entitle the state of Oklahoma admission into the Union on an equal footing with the original thirteen states are accomplished."

A band of Cherokee Indian boys then played "The Star Spangled Banner."

Governor Haskell walked forward to the center of the platform, where he was met by Mr. Niblack and took the formal oath with uplifted hand. Turning to the crowd that closed in from every direction, Governor Haskell delivered the inaugural address.

TRIAL OF MRS. BRADLEY.

Defense Will Make Insanity Plea in Defense of Woman.

Washington, Nov. 18—That the defense of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley on trial in criminal court No. 1 on the charge of murdering former United States Senator Brown, would be insanity was made evident beyond question by the preliminary statement made to the court Friday by her attorney, Mr. Hoover.

The prosecution consumed the entire forenoon in concluding the examination of its witnesses in order to prove the facts of the killing and when it rested the case, Mr. Hoover followed with his preliminary outline of the case for the defense.

He denied the principal charges of Mrs. Bradley's life and entered minutely into the circumstances of her intimacy with Brown, saying that it would be proved that she was completely under his domination and that casting testimony which would be produced to show that she was mentally irresponsible when she fired the fatal shot. He also said it would be shown that Mr. Brown had performed more than one criminal act upon her with his own hands, and that he had presented her with the pistol with which she killed him, telling her that she should use it upon his wife if she gave trouble. According to Mr. Hoover's statement, it also will be shown that there is a taint of insanity in Mrs. Bradley's family.

The text of the order, which was telegraphed from Washington a short time before the inauguration, was brief and closed as follows:

"I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, in accordance with the enabling act of congress and by authority thereof, announce the result of the election to be as certified, and do hereby declare and proclaim that the terms and conditions prescribed by congress to entitle the state of Oklahoma admission into the Union on an equal footing with the original thirteen states are accomplished."

A band of Cherokee Indian boys then played "The Star Spangled Banner."

Governor Haskell walked forward to the center of the platform, where he was met by Mr. Niblack and took the formal oath with uplifted hand. Turning to the crowd that closed in from every direction, Governor Haskell delivered the inaugural address.

TRIAL OF MRS. BRADLEY.

Defense Will Make Insanity Plea in Defense of Woman.

Washington, Nov. 18.—That the defense of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley in the trial in criminal court No. 1 on the charge of murdering former United States Senator Brown, would be insanity was made evident beyond question by the preliminary statement made to the court Friday by the attorney, Mr. Hoover.

The prosecution consumed the entire forenoon in concluding the examination of its witnesses in order to prove the facts of the killing and when it rested the case Mr. Hoover followed with his preliminary statement of the case for the defense.

He denied the principal charges against Mrs. Bradley's life and entered minutely into the circumstances of her intimacy with Brown, saying that it would be proved that she was completely under his domination and that the testimony which would be introduced to show that she was mentally irresponsible when she fired the fatal shot. He also said it would be shown that Mr. Brown had performed more than one criminal act upon her with his own hands, and that he had presented her with the pistol with which she killed him, telling her that she should use it upon his wife as she gave trouble. According to Mr. Hoover's statement, it also will be shown that there is a taint of insanity in Mrs. Bradley's family.

THOS. M'QUEEN WAS KILLED BY COUSIN

A SAD BLOW TO RELATIVES

The Participants Are Descendants of Oldest and Most Influential Families of LaFayette County—McQueen Died Monday Afternoon.

A fearful tragedy was enacted at Old Town, Lafayette county, Sunday, in which two of the most prominent citizens of that section of the county were participants, and which cost Thomas McQueen his life, having received gunshot wounds at the hands of his cousin, McQueen Chaires, which caused his death Monday afternoon. Information of this tragedy was brought to this city by residents of that section Monday, and, inasmuch as both parties have relatives here and are well known, the affair created a great deal of interest, as well as the greatest anxiety over the condition of the wounded man. Word came by telephone at a late hour Monday afternoon that the victim had passed away.

It seems impossible to secure authentic information regarding this sad affair, but the general rumor is that Thomas McQueen on Sunday went to the home of his cousin, McQueen Chaires, and threatened to kill him. It is said that Mrs. Chaires intervened, getting between her husband and McQueen, who was approaching. In the meantime Chaires secured a gun and emptied the contents of both barrels into his victim, the first load entering the head and mutilating the face, while the second took effect in his breast.

The wounded man was taken to his home, when Dr. Clyatt was summoned and rendered every aid possible. The victim lingered until Monday afternoon, when he passed away.

This affair is greatly to be regretted, and has cast a gloom over friends of both parties.

A Pleasant Party.

A pleasant party comprising Messrs. James Bodiford, Jr., Dallas Bowers and Thomas Dean, and Misses Rosabel and Winnefred Pedrick and Dorothy Prevatt, left Saturday for Wacahoota, where they were guests of the Misses Pedricks' grandmother, Mrs. J. Porter Smith, at a cane-grinding and candy-pull Saturday night. It is needless to add that they enjoyed their visit very much.

WOMAN'S CLUBS WILL MEET TODAY

DELEGATES FROM EVERYWHERE

Every Section of the State Will be Represented, and the Thirteenth Annual Session Promises to Prove One of Great Benefit and Interest.

Judging from the elaborate preparations which have been made by the local committees for the entertainment of the delegates to the thirteenth annual convention of the Florida Federation of Woman's Clubs, it is to be deducted that those who have the destinies of this convention in charge do not propose to make in this instance 13 the proverbial unlucky number which it is credited to be.

The convention will be held in the assembly room of the Elks' Home, an ideal resort for such a meeting, and the opening exercises will begin at 8:30 o'clock this evening. All day Monday delegates were arriving from various sections of the State, and by nightfall today it is estimated that the city will be well filled with delegates.

The meeting, which will be presided over by the State President, Mrs. Clara Raynor, will open with instrumental selections, to be followed with introductory remarks by Mayor W. R. Thomas.

The address of welcome will be made by Dr. W. F. Yocum, dean of the University of Florida, following which Mrs. Raynor will address the meeting.

The exercises will be closed with music.

All meetings of the Federation will be open to the public, except the reception to be tendered by the Twentieth Century Club of Gainesville Wednesday afternoon, to which special invitations have been issued.

Superintendent Holloway Here.

Among the prominent visitors to Gainesville is Hon. W. M. Holloway, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who is spending a few days shaking hands with the friends of his former home.

Prof. Holloway was en route from Tallahassee to Perry for the purpose of being present and delivering an address at the dedication of an elegant new school building. Upon reaching Live Oak he was informed that the event had been postponed for a week, hence decided to pay his friends here a brief visit.

Medical Examiners to Meet.

The fall examinations of the State Board of Medical Examiners will be held in Jacksonville, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. These examinations are held twice a year, and embrace all the subjects of medicine and surgery. All physicians who seek to practice in the State have to pass this board before they can secure a license.

Dr. J. H. Hodges, a member of the board, will leave for Jacksonville tomorrow morning to assist in conducting the examinations.

At Church of Christ.

Rev. J. W. Dunn, an eloquent divine and faithful worker of the Church of Christ, began a series of meetings at the Liberty Street church Sunday, which will be continued for an indefinite period. The meetings so far have been fairly well attended, and indications are that the meetings will prove a great success and benefit to the church here, which, so far, is not widely known in this section.

The public is invited to attend services, which are held daily at 7 p. m.

Old-Time Thanksgiving Social.

All members of the Baptist Young People's Union of the First Baptist church are invited to attend an old-time Thanksgiving social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jackson this evening.

All members are requested to meet at the church in time to leave for the Jackson home, North Gainesville, in a body, at 7:30 o'clock.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World

is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the appoval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

FIRST DAY OF STROBHAR TRIAL

Court Organized and Jury Selected Without Any Trouble.

ONLY ONE WITNESS EXAMINED

The Entire Afternoon Was Taken Up in Hearing His Testimony, After Which Court Adjourned Until Tuesday Morning—Big Crowd Present.

The circuit court met and organized for the second week of the term Monday morning, and in the afternoon the jury in the case of the State vs. J. N. Strobhar, charged with embezzlement while agent of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, was drawn and empanelled.

Those who had advanced the idea that the drawing of a jury for this case would be a tedious one, resulting in many challenges and much time, were disappointed, as the jurors were accepted by the defense as their names were called and the usual questions propounded to them.

This case has created a great deal of interest, with the result that when the trial began the court-room was fairly well crowded.

The jury in the case is an aggregation of intelligence, as is easily noted from the expression of each member. The jury comprises L. P. Tillman, C. C. Drummond, W. H. Jones, G. H. Gibbons, W. D. Fagan, F. T. Rutherford, all farmers with the exception of Jurymen Rutherford and Fagan, the former conducting a restaurant and drink stand, the latter a grocery and meat market.

As soon as the jury had been properly sworn, the taking of testimony began. Owing to the confusion arising from spectators entering and leaving the court-room during the examination of witnesses, the court ruled that no spectators should enter or leave the room while a witness was on the stand, hence excellent order prevailed.

Only One Witness.

The first witness called by the state was R. V. Ott, an employe of the Dutton Phosphate Company. The witness was questioned at length, and the entire afternoon was consumed in hearing his testimony, at the conclusion of which the court adjourned until 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Judging from the progress made on Monday and the number of witnesses to be examined, it is estimated that the greater part of the week will be consumed on this case.

Skin of Whole Body Covered for a Year—Awful Itching Kept Sufferer Awake Half the Night—Tried All Kinds of Remedies but They Had No Effect.

CUTICURA REMEDIES A PERFECT SUCCESS

"I wish to let you know that I have used one set of Cuticura Remedies—one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura, but two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills—which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all. For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. A friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies which I did, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. If any of my friends should be troubled with the same disease, I will cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies, and if I know any one who wants to know how I cured myself, I shall be glad to tell them. ### The Great Skin Cure and Purest and Sweetest of Emollients.

Cuticura Ointment is, beyond question, the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, yet compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with Cuticura Ointment, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent (Liquid or Pills), is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when most, if not all, other remedies and even physicians fail.

TO UNDERGO PROBING.

Policyholders' Committee May Ask for Receiver for Insurance Co.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—The policyholders' committee of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company on Saturday issued the following:

Policyholders representing over one million dollars face value of policies in the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company of New York have appointed a committee to take proper steps to ascertain the financial condition of the company and to assert the rights of the policy holders.

The committee intends to employ able counsel in New York to obtain relief for policy holders, or apply for a receiver for the company. Those wishing to join in the movement to rectify the wrongs done them are invited to contribute one-half of one per cent of the face value of their policies to the necessary fund and send their names and address, date and number of policies and amount of assessments paid to the secretary of the committee.

The statement is signed by the committee, which comprises J. W. Hymes, chairman, speaker of the house of representatives; W. D. Robinson, secretary, a New Orleans newspaper man, speaker of the Louisiana house of representatives; W. D. Robinson, and Lamar C. Quintero, a member of the New Orleans bar.

The committe charges that the company's basis of settlement as maintained is illegal, and to the detriment of the policy holders.

DANGER OF CATARRH.

Unless Properly Treated With Hyomei, Becomes Serious.

Catarrhal troubles are far more dangerous than they seem at first thought.

If you have catarrh, there is an irritated state of the mucous membrane and weakened tissues which afford an ideal lodgment and culture medium for disease germs, especially those of consumption.

You should get cured as quickly as possible before any dangerous germs that you may breathe lodge on the diseased tissue and work destruction in the throat and lungs.

The easiest, simplest, quickest, and cheapest way to cure catarrh is by the direct method, breathing Hyomei. This wonderful medicated air treatment does not drug and derange the stomach, but is breathed in, directly reaching and destroying all disease germs that may have been inhaled.

The unusual way in which Hyomei is sold by J. W. McCollum & Co. is the best evidence of their faith in the treatment and should dispel all doubts as to its curative properties. They agree to refund the purchase price to anyone whom Hyomei fails to benefit, and you do not risk a cent in testing its healing virtues. A complete outfit costs but $1.00 if it helps you, not a cent if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

A bill will be introduced at the approaching session of the legislature providing for such a building, which will probably be located on some of the property of the University of South Carolina.

STATE FAIR NOTES

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 18.—Principal among the attractions booked for the Florida State Fair which will be held in Tampa, February 5th to 22nd, will be Horace D. Wild's internationally famed airship, "Eagle," which won first prize and a diamond medal at a great international contest at Chicago. This airship, which will make daily flights in and around Tampa, also made a wonderful record in the recent race from St. Louis to the Atlantic coast, being prevented from winning over foreign balloons by an accident.

The horse racing will be infinitely better than that at former fairs, as evidenced by the fact that three hundred runners will be brought from New Orleans, the racing center of the South. Tampa will be admitted into membership of the National Racing Association, which is a guarantee that every race will be absolutely "straight," and that the meeting will be conducted in a most up-to-date manner.

One of the finest features of the Florida State Fair, which will be held in Tampa in February, will be the horse show, which will be on a much finer scale that that of last November. Cash premiums will be given in each class shown, and the finest saddle, harness and draught horses in the State will be exhibited. Owing to the large number of fine horses that will be brought to the fair the erection of additional stalls will begin at once. The animals shown will be given the best of care. Additional buildings will also be necessary for the accommodation of cattle, hogs, poultry and other live animals, as the number exhibited will far exceed that of the last fair.

No action taken by the directors of the Florida State Fair has been more pleasing than the determination to prevent the sale of intoxicants on or near the grounds while the fair is in progress. The city officials of Tampa will act with the directors in enforcing this rule. No serious disturbances have resulted from the sale of whiskey on the grounds heretofore, but the practice will be stopped out of deference to women, children and others who are strict advocates of temperance.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE OLD AND NEW WAY

Some Important Facts Which May Prove Helpful.

Thirty years ago old-fashioned cod liver oil had to be forced down a patient's throat. Invalids couldn't take it, and children wouldn't. But the doctors prescribed it, and it had to be taken by force. Yet it cured people where enough could be taken into the system, for it has ever been the greatest of all tissue builders and general reconstructors known to medicine.

We are now anxious to have everyone know that Vinol is a new form of this very old and valuable remedy, containing in a concentrated form all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but by an extractive and concentrating process it is made without oil or grease, and it is as delicious to the taste as a fresh orange.

Vinol does not upset the stomach like old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions; its strengthening and healing properties are remarkable, and both doctors and patients are delighted with its action.

Many wonderful cures right here in Gainesville have been effected by its use, and we ask all of our customers to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money, every time it fails to make rich, red blood, increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, run-down, tired and debilitated, or cure chronic colds, hacking coughs or bronchitis.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Fla.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

A modern wit says that a good way to remove paint is to kiss it off. And if that were permissable, lots of the dear things would never be kissed again.

You may rest assured that the ghost you entertain now will throw its phanthom shadow on all the gilt and tinsel of the coming years. The fairest vision of this day is to be ruined, maybe, by the winding trail of a ruthless and relentless memory of the past.

Are you walking in an ever-diverging path? Why not go back to the very spot where the paths took separate courses and are still ever leading to zones farther and farther away? And it may be, to begin again would bring a depth of sweetness hitherto unknown. After all, our joys are in proportion to our sorrows. The darker the night the more we love the day. Once to taste the bitter is to reach for all the fullness of the sweet. Start over again—there's more honor than disgrace in it.

Young Man Drowned.

Talladega, Ala., Nov. 18.—Bennett L. Chambers, a member of a leading family, was drowned Thursday afternoon at the plant of the Alabama Power Development company, on Choccoloco creek, 8 miles north of the city. Young Chambers was in the employ of the power company, and had been engaged in some work with other men on the flume. The flume was only a temporary wooden affair, and when the water was turned in, it gave way. The young man was hit by a piece of timber, and it is supposed that this disabled him and prevented him from saving himself.

To Issue $1 Certificates.

Atlanta, Nov. 18.—In order to meet the growing demand for smaller currency the trustees of the Atlanta Clearing House association will issue for circulation $1 clearing house certificates. The plan is calculated to remove to a considerable degree the tightness which is now existing in regard to small currency. This statement does not mean that there will be more clearing house certificates issued than formerly intended, but that instead of issuing the higher denominations, the association will substitute the $1 certificates.

There Is No Reason

Why your baby should be thin, and fretful during the night. Worms are the cause of thin, sickly babies. It is natural that a healthy baby should be fat and sleep well. If your baby does not retain its food, don't experiment with colic cures and other medicine, but try a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and you will soon see your baby have color and laugh as it should. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

TO CONSIDER GOLD CRISIS.

Signor Luzzati Urges Calling of an International Congress.

Vienna, Nov. 18—An article in the Neue Frie Press, written by Signor Luzzati proposes that the treasuries and the leading banks of the world be represented, and that the delegates examine the statutes of banks of issue and reform them.

He believes the statutes are out of date and that they make all money crises worse This, he says, is particularly true of America and England . The antique regulations of the Bank of England decrease the gold basis.

Joint stock banks ought to increase their reserves and not rely alone upon the Bank of England, which no longer governs the money market, and is on the point of losing its monetary autonomy because its metal basis is too small.

Signor Luzatti favors an international agreement among the world's chief banks for reciprocal loans of gold so as to prevent rivalry. He suggests that Australia and Italy jointly ask France as the chief banking power of the world, to summon the conference.

TO CURTAIL EXPENSES.

Paper May Be Issued Bi-Monthly Instead of Monthly.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 18.—At the meeting of the general committee of the board of home missions and church extensions of the Methodist Episcopal church Friday night, Bishop Cranston proposed the issuing of the Christian Republic the organ of the board, bi-monthly instead of monthly, as at present, thereby saving about $20,000 a year.

After listening to further remarks on the subject, the committee decided curtailment was necessary and ordered the paper published six times a year instead of twelve. An effort is also to be made to consolidate this paper with Wide World Mission, the official organ of the board of foreign missions.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Luisville Street Car Strike

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 18.—The Louisville Railway company was able Saturday morning to give an increased service on all its lines despite the assertion of the men, who struck Friday, that they had won over a large number of the strike-breakers. A fair schedule was maintained on the principal lines and the cars coming down town early carried many passengers. The company also began the operation of one of its suburban lines. One hundred and twenty-five additional strike breakers arrived during the morning.

Bank Suspends Payment.

Sandoint, Idaho, Nov. 18.—The Traders State bank, capitalized at $15,000, suspended payment temporarily Friday. Inability to realize on $60,000 of secured loans is given as the cause of suspension. The bank's deposits amount to $125,000, all of which the officials have pledged themselves to make good.

Be Charitable

To your horses as well as to yourself. You need not suffer from pains of any sort—your horses need not suffer. Try a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It cures all pains. J. M. Roberts, Bakersfield, Mo., writes: "I have used your liniment for ten years and find it to be the best I have ever used for man or beast." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

OVER TWO THOUSAND VISITORS A DAY

Cooper Explains Reason for Remarkable Average of Boston Callers.

During L. T. Cooper's recent stay in Boston, it is estimated that sixty-five thousand people talked with him and purchased his medicine. This is an average of over two thousand a day.

His success was so phenomenal as to cause universal comment both by the public and the press. There must be a reason for this. Here is the reason given in his own words by Mr. Cooper when interviewed on the subject. He said:

"The immense numbers of people who are calling on me here in Boston is not unusual. I have had the same experience for the past two years wherever I have gone. The reason is a simple one. It is because my medicine puts the stomach in good condition. This does not sound unusual, but it is in fact the key to health. The stomach is the very foundation of life. I attribute 90 per cent. of all sickness directly to the stomach.

"Neither animals nor men can remain well with a poor digestive apparatus. Few can be sick with a digestion in perfect condition. As a matter of fact, most men and women today are half-sick. It is because too much food and too little exercise have gradually forced the stomach into a half-sick condition. My medicine gets the stomach back where it was, and that is all that is necessary."

Among Boston people who are staunch believers in Mr. Cooper's theory, is Mr. Frank D. Brown, of 57 Bloomingdale street, Chelsea, Mass. He says:

"For five years I have sought relief for indigestion, stomach trouble and dyspepsia, spending nearly all my wages with doctors and obtaining no results. I had dull pains across my back, radiating to the shoulders. I had splitting headaches, which nothing seemed to cure. There was a gnawing and rumbling in my stomach and bowels. I was troubled with sour risings and dizziness, and at times almost overcome by drowsiness.

"I felt tired and worn out all the time, my sleep was not refreshing and I would get up in the morning feeling as weary as when I went to bed. My appetite was variable and capricious at times, then again nauseated at the sight of food. Sometimes my tongue was pale, at other times dark. I was constipated and bilious, and had catarrhal affection in nose and throat which caused me to hawk and spit a great deal, especially in the morning. I heard so much of the Cooper remedies that I decided to try them. After taking one bottle, a tapeworm I had long passed from my system. I felt better almost immediately. All my troubles disappeared as if by magic and my improvement was rapid. I now feel entirely well, and can heartily recommend Mr. Cooper's medicines to anyone who suffers as I did."

We sell the Cooper remedies which give universal satisfaction. —J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Republican contemporary assures us that politics have no place in municipal elections and that Tom Johnson was not elected as a Democrat, but as a mayor. And it may be remarked that Mr. Burton was not elected either.

There is nothing in this suggestion of putting the head of the Secretary of the Treasury on the new $10 certificates. There is a wise provision in law against using the picture of a living man for this purpose, as you cannot tell what he may do before he dies.

Hon. D. U. Fletcher of Jacksonville has made formal announcement of his candidacy for the United States Senate. Col. Fletcher is one of the ablest and best men in Florida, and if Senator Mallory is to be succeeded of all the candidates now in the field he is The Sun's preference.

Take the railroads out of Wall Street and the tickers out of the railroad offices and the trouble between the people and the railroads will be greatly diminished. It is the gambling of railroad officials that causes most of the rascalities of railroad management. The connection between the Wall Street speculators, the railroads, the trusts and the Republican politicians is the cause of the panic that is crippling the industries of the country.

GOV. HUGHES' CANDIDACY.

The more one looks at it, the more insistent and unwelcome appears the Hughes boom for the Presidency. It has just "dropped in casual like" on the Republican party but it is a force to be reckoned with and if it does not come to actual fruition as a nomination, it is likely to sidetrack a good many other booms, get in the way of well-laid plans and cause general party disruption. It is said at political headquarters that the movement has been so strong as to command not only the attention but the action of the President, and he has been forced to allow the use of his name in connection with the Hughes candidacy by some of the New York leaders. It is no great secret that the President does not like Governor Hughes, and one or two public speeches would indicate that the sentiment is about as cordial on the side of the Governor. But it appears from this distance that any man to command the support of the Republican party as a whole must have the endorsement of the unquestioned boss of the party, President Roosevelt. The President knows well enough that his party would stand not a ghost of a show for winning the election if there were a serious split in it anywhere, and thus he would rather accept Hughes as his personal nominee than see anything like internecine strife in the party. Therefore he has lent his countenance to the Hughes movement, though unwillingly, probably in the hope that something will turn up between now and nominating time to put the Governor of New York out of consideration. But crockery is weak on the line of a fracture, no matter how carefully it has been mended, and it will be interesting to see whether the patched peace will hold under the strain of a warm political contest.

ASSET OR CREDIT CURRENCY.

The advocates of asset currency, or credit currency, are again chirping merrily in the newspapers. Congressman Charles N. Fowler of New Jersey, and Mr. Henry W. Peabody of Massachusetts, have been writing letters and interviews urging "the friends of National banks and sound currency and the gold standard" to repeal the restrictions imposed by the act of Congress of 1882 upon the sudden retirement of bank notes for speculative purposes. The act of 1882 was passed to protect the country against the arbitrary and unexpected contraction and subsequent expansion of currency by banks of issue which had resulted in disaster to the whole country. In 1881 an aggregate retirement of $18,000,000 of bank currency had caused a panic; and the act was passed to take away from the banks this panic-power. The debates in Congress at that time show that even the Republicans had learned to dread the exercise of such a power by the unscrupulous financiers of those days. But now it is proposed to restore this panic-power by enabling banks to issue asset currency with no security and to substitute the "cats and dogs" of Wall Street as security for deposits, and use the Government bonds which the law has heretofore required as security for deposits, as a means of obtaining additional notes for circulation; thus enabling the Wall Street gamblers to expand and contract the currency at will, and to make contraction a subterfuge for emptying the National treasury into their own coffers. Of course, Democrats oppose this scheme on principle. Every honest man should oppose it from motives of expediency, even if he is not a Democrat.

The other day the friend of a certain editor came in with a tempting offer to invest in a gold mine. The friend had large holdings in a bonanza property and thought it would pay immensely. The editor looked at him gravely and then said: "My dear Mr. X, for a number of years I have been saving and denying myself and putting all I could get into a most profitable gold mine, and it has proved a vastly lucrative venture. It has paid the largest dividends of any investment I ever made." His friend asked eagerly: "What is it? Where is that mine?" The editor eagerly replied: "The college education of my six children."

An admiring defender of John D. Rockefeller says that his legal bureau has "oiled the wheels of justice for 3,000 poor claimants." But it is a safe bet that he saw to it the lubricant was not made by any of the independents

THE BABY POST.

A Curious Institution That Once Flourished In England.

Although few people are probably now aware of it, the fact remains that there once flourished in England a regular "baby post," the rates of postage being fixed on a strictly business basis, according to distances traversed.

The curious institution came into existence in connection with the foundling hospital in Guilford street. When this charity was first established, it was understood that its operations would be confined to London and its environs. But the people of the country towns and villages heard of it and showed a decided disposition to share in its advantages; hence the "baby post!"

All over the country there were men and women who entered vigorously into the business of carrying children to London and depositing them at the gates of the foundling hospital. The charge was 8 guineas from distant localities like York and Monmouth, down to a guinea from places situated within thirty to fifty miles of the metropolis. The unfortunate infants were borne on horseback in panniers, two to each pannier, or in wagons lined with straw, for which the charge was somewhat less.

Naturally abuses grew up in connection with the traffic. But, even apart from them, the mortality among the "posted" babies was terrible. Thus, out of 14,934 received at the hospital in four years, only 4,400 lived to be "apprenticed out," being a mortality of more than 70 per cent.

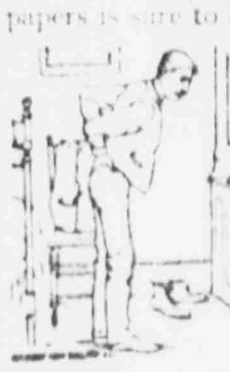

Eventually parliament passed a measure abolishing the practice, and the "baby post" ceased.—London Answers.

Euphemisms For "Mad."

In order to avoid the blunt word "mad" many euphemisms are resorted to in the English language. While "lunacy" refers to the supposed influence of the moon, "insane" simply means unhealthy; "imbecile" signifies only weak, and "crazy," meaning decrepit, almost corresponds to the slang "cracked." "A tile off," "not all there," "a bee in his bonnet," are only a few of the efforts slang has made to carry off the sad fact with an uneasy joke. "Lunatic asylum," for the old "madhouse," represents not only a great improvement in the institution, but also in the term used to designate it.

STATE FAIR NOTES

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 18.—Principal among the attractions booked for the Florida State Fair which will be held in Tampa, February 5th to 22nd, will be Horace D. Wild's internationally famed airship, "Eagle," which won first prize and a diamond medal at a great international contest at Chicago. This airship, which will make daily flights in and around Tampa, also made a wonderful record in the recent race from St. Louis to the Atlantic coast, being prevented from winning over foreign balloons by an accident.

The horse racing will be infinitely better than that at former fairs, as evidenced by the fact that three hundred runners will be brought from New Orleans, the racing center of the South. Tampa will be admitted into membership of the National Racing Association, which is a guarantee that every race will be absolutely "straight," and that the meeting will be conducted in a most up-to-date manner.

One of the finest features of the Florida State Fair, which will be held in Tampa in February, will be the horse show, which will be on a much finer scale that that of last November. Cash premiums will be given in each class shown, and the finest saddle, harness and draught horses in the State will be exhibited. Owing to the large number of fine horses that will be brought to the fair the erection of additional stalls will begin at once. The animals shown will be given the best of care. Additional buildings will also be necessary for the accommodation of cattle, hogs, poultry and other live animals, as the number exhibited will far exceed that of the last fair.

No action taken by the directors of the Florida State Fair has been more pleasing than the determination to prevent the sale of intoxicants on or near the grounds while the fair is in progress. The city officials of Tampa will act with the directors in enforcing this rule. No serious disturbances have resulted from the sale of whiskey on the grounds heretofore, but the practice will be stopped out of deference to women, children and others who are strict advocates of temperance.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Some Important Facts Which May Prove Helpful.

Thirty years ago old-fashioned cod liver oil had to be forced down a patient's throat. Invalids couldn't take it, and children wouldn't. But the doctors prescribed it, and it had to be taken by force. Yet it cured people where enough could be taken into the system, for it has ever been the greatest of all tissue builders and general reconstructors known to medicine.

We are now anxious to have everyone know that Vinol is a new form of this very old and valuable remedy, containing in a concentrated form all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but by an extractive and concentrating process it is made without oil or grease, and it is as delicious to the taste as a fresh orange.

Vinol does not upset the stomach like old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions; its strengthening and healing properties are remarkable, and both doctors and patients are delighted with its action.

Many wonderful cures right here in Gainesville have been effected by its use, and we ask all of our customers to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money, every time it fails to make rich, red blood, increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, run-down, tired and debilitated, or cure chronic colds, hacking coughs or bronchitis.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Fla.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

A modern wit says that a good way to remove paint is to kiss it off. And if that were permissable, lots of the dear things would never be kissed again.

You may rest assured that the ghost you entertain now will throw its phanthom shadow on all the gilt and tinsel of the coming years. The fairest vision of this day is to be ruined, maybe, by the winding trail of a ruthless and relentless memory of the past.

Are you walking in an ever-diverging path? Why not go back to the very spot where the paths took separate courses and are still ever leading to zones farther and farther away? And it may be, to begin again would bring a depth of sweetness hitherto unknown. After all, our joys are in proportion to our sorrows. The darker the night the more we love the day. Once to taste the bitter is to reach for all the fullness of the sweet. Start over again—there's more honor than disgrace in it.

Young Man Drowned.

Talladega, Ala., Nov. 18.—Bennett L. Chambers, a member of a leading family, was drowned Thursday afternoon at the plant of the Alabama Power Development company, on Choccolocco creek, 8 miles north of the city. Young Chambers was in the employ of the power company, and had been engaged in some work with other men on the flume. The flume was only a temporary wooden affair, and when the water was turned in, it gave way. The young man was hit by a piece of timber, and it is supposed that this disabled him and prevented him from saving himself.

To Issue $1 Certificates.

Atlanta, Nov. 18.—In order to meet the growing demand for smaller currency the trustees of the Atlanta Clearing House association will issue for circulation $1 clearing house certificates. The plan is calculated to remove to a considerable degree the tightness which is now existing in regard to small currency. This statement does not mean that there will be more clearing house certificates issued than formerly intended, but that instead of issuing the higher denominations, the association will substitute the $1 certificates.

TO CONSIDER GOLD CRISIS.

Signor Luzzati Urges Calling of an International Congress.

Vienna, Nov. 18—An article in the Neue Frie Press, written by Signor Luzzati proposes that the treasuries and the leading banks of the world be represented, and that the delegates examine the statutes of banks of issue and reform them.

He believes the statutes are out of date and that they make all money crises worse. This, he says, is particularly true of America and England. The antique regulations of the Bank of England decrease the gold basis.

Joint stock banks ought to increase their reserves and not rely alone upon the Bank of England, which no longer governs the money market, and is on the point of losing its monetary autonomy because its metal basis is too small.

Signor Luzatti favors an international agreement among the world's chief banks for reciprocal loans of gold so as to prevent rivalry. He suggests that Australia and Italy jointly ask France as the chief banking power of the world, to summon the conference.

TO CURTAIL EXPENSES.

Paper May Be Issued Bi-Monthly Instead of Monthly.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 18.—At the meeting of the general committee of the board of home missions and church extensions of the Methodist Episcopal church Friday night, Bishop Cranston proposed the issuing of the Christian Republic the organ of the board, bi-monthly instead of monthly, as at present, thereby saving about $20,000 a year.

After listening to further remarks on the subject, the committee decided curtailment was necessary and ordered the paper published six times a year instead of twelve. An effort is also to be made to consolidate this paper with Wide World Mission, the official organ of the board of foreign missions.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Luisville Street Car Strike

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 18.—The Louisville Railway company was able Saturday morning to give an increased service on all its lines despite the assertion of the men, who struck Friday, that they had won over a large number of the strike-breakers. A fair schedule was maintained on the principal lines and the cars coming down town early carried many passengers. The company also began the operation of one of its suburban lines. One hundred and twenty-five additional strike breakers arrived during the morning.

Bank Suspends Payment.

Sandoint, Idaho, Nov. 18.—The Traders State bank, capitalized at $15,000, suspended payment temporarily Friday. Inability to realize on $60,000 of secured loans is given as the cause of suspension. The bank's deposits amount to $125,000, all of which the officials have pledged themselves to make good.

Be Charitable

To your horses as well as to yourself. You need not suffer from pains of any sort—your horses need not suffer. Try a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It cures all pains. J. M. Roberts, Bakersfield, Mo., writes: "I have used your liniment for ten years and find it to be the best I have ever used for man or beast." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

OVER TWO THOUSAND VISITORS A DAY

Cooper Explains Reason for Remarkable Average of Boston Callers.

During L. T. Cooper's recent stay in Boston, it is estimated that sixty-five thousand people talked with him and purchased his medicine. This is an average of over two thousand a day.

His success was so phenomenal as to cause universal comment both by the public and the press. There must be a reason for this. Here is the reason given in his own words by Mr. Cooper when interviewed on the subject. He said:

"The immense numbers of people who are calling on me here in Boston is not unusual. I have had the same experience for the past two years wherever I have gone. The reason is a simple one. It is because my medicine puts the stomach in good condition. This does not sound unusual, but it is in fact the key to health. The stomach is the very foundation of life. I attribute 90 per cent. of all sickness directly to the stomach.

"Neither animals nor men can remain well with a poor digestive apparatus. Few can be sick with a digestion in perfect condition. As a matter of fact, most men and women today are half-sick. It is because too much food and too little exercise have gradually forced the stomach into a half-sick condition. My medicine gets the stomach back where it was, and that is all that is necessary."

Among Boston people who are staunch believers in Mr. Cooper's theory, is Mr. Frank D. Brown, of 57 Bloomingdale street, Chelsea, Mass. He says:

"For five years I have sought relief for indigestion, stomach trouble and dyspepsia, spending nearly all my wages with doctors and obtaining no results. I had dull pains across my back, radiating to the shoulders. I had splitting headaches, which nothing seemed to cure. There was a gnawing and rumbling in my stomach and bowels. I was troubled with vertigo and dizziness, and at times almost overcome by drowsiness.

"I felt tired and worn out all the time, my sleep was not refreshing and I would get up in the morning feeling as weary as when I went to bed. My appetite was variable and capricious at times, then again nauseated at the sight of food. Sometimes my face was pale, at other times flushed. I was constipated and bilious, and had catarrhal affection in nose and throat which caused me to hawk and spit a great deal, especially in the morning. I heard so much of the Cooper remedies that I decided to try them. After taking one bottle, a tapeworm that had long passed from my system. I felt better almost immediately. All my troubles disappeared as if by magic, and my improvement was rapid. I now feel entirely well, and can honestly recommend Mr. Cooper's medicines to anyone who suffers as I did."

We sell the Cooper medicines which give universal satisfaction. —J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Republican contemporary assures us that politics have no place in municipal elections and that Tom Johnson was not elected as a Democrat, but as a mayor. And it may be remarked that Mr. Burton was not elected as either.

There is nothing in this suggestion of putting the head of the Secretary of the Treasury on the new $10 certificates. There is a wise provision in law against using the picture of a living man for this purpose, as you cannot tell what he may do before he dies.

The connection between the Wall Street speculators, the railroads, the trusts and the Republican politicians is the cause of the panic that is crippling the industries of the country.

GOV. HUGHES' CANDIDACY.

The more one looks at it, the more insistent and unwelcome appears the Hughes boom for the Presidency. It has just "dropped in casual like" on the Republican party but it is a force to be reckoned with and if it does not come to actual fruition as a nomination, it is likely to sidetrack a good many other booms, get in the way of well-laid plans and cause general party disruption. It is said at political headquarters that the movement has been so strong as to command not only the attention but the action of the President, and he has been forced to allow the use of his name in connection with the Hughes candidacy by some of the New York leaders. It is no great secret that the President does not like Governor Hughes, and one or two public speeches would indicate that the sentiment is about as cordial on the side of the Governor. But it appears from this distance that any man to command the support of the Republican party as a whole must have the endorsement of the unquestioned boss of the party, President Roosevelt. The President knows well enough that his party would stand not a ghost of a show for winning the election if there were a serious split in it anywhere, and thus he would rather accept Hughes as his personal nominee than see anything like internecine strife in the party. Therefore he has lent his countenance to the Hughes movement, though unwillingly, probably in the hope that something will turn up between now and nominating time to put the Governor of New York out of consideration. But crockery is weak on the line of a fracture, no matter how carefully it has been mended, and it will be interesting to see whether the patched peace will hold under the strain of a warm political contest.

ASSET OR CREDIT CURRENCY.

The advocates of asset currency, or credit currency, are again chirping merrily in the newspapers. Congressman Charles N. Fowler of New Jersey, and Mr. Henry W. Peabody of Massachusetts, have been writing letters and interviews urging "the friends of National banks and sound currency and the gold standard" to repeal the restrictions imposed by the act of Congress of 1882 upon the sudden retirement of bank notes for speculative purposes. The act of 1882 was passed to protect the country against the arbitrary and unexpected contraction and subsequent expansion of currency by banks of issue which had resulted in disaster to the whole country. In 1881 an aggregate retirement of $18,000,000 of bank currency had caused a panic; and the act was passed to take away from the banks this panic-power. The debates in Congress at that time show that even the Republicans had learned to dread the exercise of such a power by the unscrupulous financiers of those days. But now it is proposed to restore this panic-power by enabling banks to issue asset currency with no security and to substitute the "cats and dogs" of Wall Street as security for deposits, and use the Government bonds which the law has heretofore required as security for deposits, as a means of obtaining additional notes for circulation; thus enabling the Wall Street gamblers to expand and contract the currency at will, and to make contraction a subterfuge for emptying the National treasury into their own coffers. Of course, Democrats oppose this scheme on principle. Every honest man should oppose it from motives of expediency, even if he is not a Democrat.

The other day the friend of a certain editor came in with a tempting offer to invest in a gold mine. The friend had large holdings in a bonanza property, and thought it would pay immensely. The editor looked at him gravely and then said: "My dear Mr. X, for a number of years I have been saving and denying myself and putting all I could get into a most profitable gold mine, and it has proved a vastly lucrative venture. It has paid the largest dividends of any investment I ever made." His friend asked eagerly: "What is it? Where is that mine?" The editor eagerly replied: "The college education of my six children."

An admiring defender of John D. Rockefeller says that his legal bureau has "oiled the wheels of justice for 3,000 poor claimants." But it is a safe bet that he saw to it the lubricant was not made by any of the independents.

THE BABY POST.

A Curious Institution That Once Flourished In England.

Although few people are probably now aware of it, the fact remains that there once flourished in England a regular "baby post," the rates of postage being fixed on a strictly business basis, according to distances traversed.

The curious institution came into existence in connection with the foundling hospital in Guilford street. When this charity was first established, it was understood that its operations would be confined to London and its environs. But the people of the country towns and villages heard of it and showed a decided disposition to share in its advantages; hence the "baby post!"

All over the country there were men and women who entered vigorously into the business of carrying children to London and depositing them at the gates of the foundling hospital. The charge was 8 guineas from distant localities like York and Monmouth, down to a guinea from places situated within thirty to fifty miles of the metropolis. The unfortunate infants were borne on horseback in panniers, two to each pannier, or in wagons lined with straw, for which the charge was somewhat less.

Naturally abuses grew up in connection with the traffic. But, even apart from them, the mortality among the "posted" babies was terrible. Thus, out of 14,934 received at the hospital in four years, only 4,400 lived to be "apprenticed out," being a mortality of more than 70 per cent.

Eventually parliament passed a measure abolishing the practice, and the "baby post" ceased.—London Answers.

Euphemisms For "Mad."

In order to avoid the blunt word "mad" many euphemisms are resorted to in the English language. While "lunacy" refers to the supposed influence of the moon, "insane" simply means unhealthy; "imbecile" signifies only weak, and "crazy," meaning decrepit, almost corresponds to the slang "cracked." "A tile off," "not all there," "a bee in his bonnet," are only a few of the efforts slang has made to carry off the sad fact with an uneasy joke. "Lunatic asylum," for the old "madhouse," represents not only a great improvement in the institution, but also in the term used to designate it.

MAGIC OF THE BASS.

Memories of the Battle That Linger With the Angler.

"The Indians call it 'Me-da Mon-nuh-she-gan,' which translated means magic bass. He is said to be much like other black bass in appearance. But his peculiar attributes are these:

"He must be caught by casting, with a surface bait, so that you can see him rise to it. He may be taken in running water where the clear current foams over mossy bowlders and through gurgling, sunlit shallows or in the silent pools where the forest hangs darkly over the stream. He may be taken at some still lake's grassy marge, where the water lilies build him a green and white and golden canopy, or in the open places when the west wind's magic turns the glassy surface into silver.

"But wherever you find him you will see that nature rules supreme. And whether in brawling stream or quiet pool, in some peaceful lilied bay or just beneath the rippled broad expanse, where the wild beauty of the spot makes your heart beat faster, here may you find the magic bass.

"And this is his magic: That when you have fought him inch by inch and have looked upon him as he lay exhausted in your landing net you are his forever. For wherever you go and whatever you do there will come to you ever and often a dream of his first leap into the air, of the tugging line and of his body at your feet, and indistinct behind it all lie the sparkling water and the forest and the blue sky.

"In the dead of winter you will of a sudden hear the soft splash of the bass rising to your fly, you will feel the sudden tautness of the line, and the snow outside your window will melt into a summer landscape. When you are busiest there will come to you the song of the reel and the smell of pine and fir and balsam. That is the magic of the Me-da Mon-nuh-she-gan."—Outing Magazine.

GOOD BLOOD

NATURE'S PROTECTION AGAINST DISEASE

The preservation of health and prevention against disease is almost entirely dependent upon pure, healthy blood; every organ, tissue, nerve and sinew of the body draws on this vital fluid for nourishment and strength. Poisons, humors and germs from various sources often get into the blood and then this great life-stream becomes a source of infection and disease instead of a nourishing, health-sustaining fluid. Heredity is likewise an important factor, regulating the quality of the blood. Some persons are born with tainted blood from diseased ancestry, and Scrofula in one of its numerous forms is sure to crop out some time in life. Not only poisons in the blood are responsible for disease, but when the circulation is run down and becomes poor and weak in quality, then we see the effect in a general bad condition of health, such as weakness, sallow complexions, boils, and various skin eruptions. All blood troubles require a tonic and blood purifier, and none other equals S. S. S. It goes down to the very foundation of the trouble, and removes every particle of the poison or impurity from the blood. And not only does S. S. S. antidote the poisons, humors and germs, but it possesses health-giving, tonic properties, which build up and strengthen weak, impoverished blood, and fortifies the system against disease. S. S. S. permanently cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Eczema, Tetter, and all other skin diseases and disorders. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

THE AEROPLANE.

Keeping It Properly Balanced Is a Difficult Art.

An aeroplane may be defined as a surface propelled horizontally in such a manner that the resulting pressure of air from beneath prevents its falling. A balloon can remain stationary over a given spot in a calm, but an aeroplane must be kept in motion if it is to remain in the air. Such a plane literally runs on the air like a skater gliding over thin ice. The most familiar example of an aeroplane is the kite of our boyhood days. We all remember how we kept it aloft even in a light breeze by running with it against the wind. Substitute the pull of a propeller for the cord and the aeroplane flying machine is created. If this were all, the problem of artificial flight would have been solved long ago. There remains the supremely difficult art of balancing the plane so that it will skate on an even keel. Even birds find it hard to maintain this stability. In the constant effort to steady himself a hawk sways from side to side as he soars, like an acrobat on a tight rope. Occasionally a bird will catch the wind on the top of his wing, with the result that he will capsize and fall some distance before he can recover himself. If the living aeroplanes of nature find the feat of balancing so difficult, is it any wonder that men have been killed in endeavoring to discover their secret?

If you have ever sailed a canoe you will readily understand what this task of balancing an aeroplane really means. As the pressure of the wind on your sail heels your canoe over you must climb out on the outrigger far enough for your weight to counterbalance the wind pressure, so that you will not be upset. The physicist scientifically explains your achievement by stating that you have succeeded in keeping the center of air pressure and the center of gravity on the same straight line. In a canoe the feat is comparatively easy; in an aeroplane it demands constant and flashlike shifting of the body, because the sudden slight variations of the wind must be immediately opposed.—Waldemar Kaempffert in Cosmopolitan.

A Universal Word.

One of the first words that a baby says is mamma or mother, and it is not strange, therefore, to find it one of the first and simplest words in every language. There is no word easier for a child to say than "ma" unless it be "pa." In Hebrew and Arabic mother is "em" and "um." It is "mam" in Welsh and "moder" in Anglo-Saxon. In other languages it is slightly different, but near enough like our own word "mother" to make it an almost universal word, so that a child crying in any language could be understood in almost any other language. Here are a few of the names:

|---|---|
| Madr in Persian. | Moder in Swedish. |
| Mate in Sanscrit. | Moder in Danish. |
| Meter in Greek. | Moeder in Dutch. |
| Mater in Latin. | Mutter in German. |
| Madre in Italian. | Mater in Russian. |
| Mere in French. | Mathair in Celtic. |

Odd Use For the Tongue.

The brakeman moaned and sighed, a cinder in his eye.

"I'll tongue it out for you," said the conductor, and he bent over his associate, ran his tongue over the pupil of the man's eye and in a jiffy had out the cinder.

"On railroads, in foundries, in stokeholes," the conductor said afterward, "wherever cinders get continually in the eye, there everybody extracts them in one way—with the tongue. The tongue removes things better than any instrument would do. It sweeps the eye clean as a flood sweeps a river bed. Further, it is painless. Its passage over the eyeball is, indeed, a rather pleasant sensation. As regards the sensations of the owner of the tongue—well?" — New Orleans Times-Democrat.

SUNDAY TRAGEDY WEST OF TOWN

James Bureen Shot and Killed Woman at Tioga Camp.

NEGRO MADE HIS ESCAPE

Left Camp Bareheaded and Barefooted, and Has Not Yet Been Captured. Verdict of Coroner's Jury—Killing Resulted from a Quarrel.

Tioga, a timber and naval stores camp about ten miles west of Gainesville, was the scene of a tragedy Sunday afternoon which resulted in the death of a woman and made a criminal of Jim Bureen, a negro who has been employed in the lumber camp of the Cummer Company.

The name of the victim could not be learned, neither could the particulars in the case, further than the fact that the man and woman, whom it is claimed had been living together, quarrelled. In a few moments Bureen returned with a gun, emptying the contents into the woman's abdomen, killing her instantly.

Bureen, in his haste to escape, left the camp bareheaded and without shoes. Officer Livingston at Newberry was informed of the tragedy as quickly as possible and gave chase, but the negro had gained too much headway, and the search so far has been to no avail.

A coroner's jury was empanelled and an inquest held, the verdict of the jury being to the effect that the woman came to her death by gunshot wounds, the weapon being in the hands of one Jim Bureen.

The Tioga settlement is unusually a quiet one, this being the first tragedy in that section for several years.

At last accounts Bureen had not been captured.

Why He Is a Bachelor.

"I've been very close to matrimony several times," remarked a confirmed old bachelor at an uptown club, "and every time my inclination has been sidetracked by the same sort of incident—the discovery of a trait which appears to be practically universal among the fair sex."

"Drink?" asked the cynic.

"No; the confidence game. Every woman I ever knew intimately was sure to relate to me eventually something in 'strictest confidence,' which later it appeared had been told to her in 'strictest confidence.' I won't tie up with a woman who does that."

"Guess you'll die single, all right," said the cynic.

"I'm sure of it," said the bachelor.—New York Globe.

A Bargain.

He—Miss Hunt, I love you, but now I dare not dream of calling you mine. Yesterday I was worth $10,000, but today, by a turn of fortune's wheel, I have but a few paltry hundreds to call my own. I would not ask you to share me in my reduced state. Fare well forever!

She (eagerly)—Good gracious! Reduced from $10,000 to $100! What a bargain! Of course I'll take you. You should have known I couldn't resist.—Magazine.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and, through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

"TELL HER SHE MUST."

The Doctor's Mistake, Which Was Corrected by the Married Man.

The family physician puffed meditatively at his cigar for a few minutes before coming down to business.

"I have been to see your wife, as you requested," he said at last, "and I asked you to come in so that I could tell you what should be done. She's in a pretty bad way."

"Indeed?"

"Yes. No regular sickness, you know, but generally run down and in bad shape. With rest and care she'll come out all right, but you'll have to look after her pretty closely."

"I beg your pardon."

"I say you'll have to look after her pretty closely. You'll have to appoint yourself sort of general overseer or supervisor of everything pertaining to her welfare for a time and be very strict with her too. In the first place, tell her she must"—

"Doctor, are you acquainted with my wife?" interrupted the husband.

"Not intimately at all," replied the astonished physician. "I've been called upon to treat her once or twice, as you know, but that is all."

"Possibly that may be urged as an excuse," said the husband, "but it's not a particularly good one. There are women with whom you are quite well acquainted, are there not?"

"Certainly."

"Married women?"

"Many of them."

"And still you advise me to tell my wife that she must do something or other?"

The physician looked at the husband, and the husband looked at the physician.

"My dear sir," said the physician at last, "it flatters some men to talk to them that way, but I see you are a man of judgment and sense who prefers the truth to all else. Of course what I mean is that you ought to suggest to your wife that if it is in accord with her judgment possibly it might be a good thing to follow the advice that I will now give you. Naturally, being married, I know as well as you that 'must' is a word that ought to be eliminated from the English language or at the most confined to the intercourse of parents with children."—Exchange.

TRIALS OF THE RICH.

Financial Prosperity and Its Worries and Perplexities.

Once upon a time a young man and a girl loved each other fondly. He was poor, but bright, energetic and persevering. She was pretty, cheerful and amiable. They married. Their friends thought they might have waited until their prospects were better, but they laughed prudence to scorn.

Two years after the marriage the wife met one of her friends.

"How are you getting along?" asked the friend.

"Very nicely," said the wife, beaming. "My husband is so good, and I have such a lovely baby. And, just think, we have $1,000 in the bank, and we don't owe a cent to anybody!"

Five years later the friend met her again.

"I hear you are doing very well," she said. "Some one told me your husband had $10,000 invested in real estate."

"Why, yes," said the wife, "but it's such a worry. There are repairs and taxes and interest on mortgages, and one of the tenants has just moved out owing us a whole month's rent. Isn't it a shame?"

Five years more elapsed, and again the friend met her.

"They tell me you're growing rich," she said.

"Yes, but I'm anxious about the stock market. My husband has $50,000 in stocks, and he thinks they're going up, but I'm not so sure about it. Indeed, I didn't sleep a wink last night."

Five years later—another meeting.

"From what I hear your husband will soon be a millionaire."

"Oh, I don't know," said the wife. "He hasn't more than half a million yet. And it is so tied up in all sorts of investments—one never knows how they will turn out. I just wish we had enough to put the money in government bonds so that we wouldn't have to worry. But of course the income from half a million in government bonds wouldn't be enough to make both ends meet. And yet, do you know, some people have such absurd notions about the amount of money we have! One crank has even sent a letter to my husband threatening to shoot him just because he is rich. I declare, sometimes I'm so worried I don't know what to do."

It would be pleasant to give this story a happy ending, but that isn't the kind it had. This lady's wealth continued to increase as long as she lived, and she never ceased to be uneasy except in those brief intervals when she forgot all about it.—Bohemian.
